Sub: Continuous Professional Development (CPD) Micro Courses for Teachers and School Heads - Reg.

Sir/ Madam,

The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 emphasizes the essential role of teachers and school heads in advancing the quality of education. It mandates that all educators complete at least 50 hours of Continuous Professional Development (CPD) activities each year. In alignment with this policy and supported by the Union Budget's emphasis on digital education, there is a growing need for professional development in the use and integration of digital technologies.

NCERT is offering a series of CPD micro-courses through the DIKSHA portal and mobile application. These courses will contribute to fulfilling the mandated 50 hours of CPD, with a focus on digital literacy and effective technology use in education. Complete details and the list of available courses can be accessed via the following link: https://ciet.ncert.gov.in/short_courses

A complete list of available micro-courses is attached as Annexure - I for ready reference. For any further inquiries, please contact Dr. Angel Rathnabai, Assistant Professor & Programme Coordinator, CIET-NCERT, at training.helpdesk@ciet.nic.in.

The details of the Principals/ Vice Principals/ Teachers who have attended and received the certificate may be submitted to this office after completion of the programme.

Yours faithfully

(N.P. Rajan)

Deputy Commissioner (Trg.)
